Miss Lucy A. Proctor, who has been engaged as instructor of music in the city schools for the past year, left today for New York City.

Mrs. Frank McCarthy of Averill street left the city today for her home in Franconia, N. H., where she will pass the greater part of the summer.

BARRE DAILY TIMES

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 16, 1915.

The Weather

Fair to-night and colder in Vermont Thursday fair; light northwest to west winds.

TALK OF THE TOWN

The annual election of officers of the brotherhood of the Methodist church will be held this evening at 7:30 in the league room. All members plan to be present. Light refreshments.

Children who would like to go on a bird walk Thursday be at Miss Carleton's at 1:15 p. m., or at the Mathewson school building at 1:30. Bring lunch. If the weather is unfavorable, the walk will be postponed until Friday.

The ladies and pastor's union of the Heding Methodist church will hold its monthly business meeting with Mrs. T. H. Cave, jr., Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A large attendance is desired and ladies please come prepared to sew.

The young Italian Christoforo Colombo band, under direction of P. Gropelli, have completed the course of music. Those boys wishing to learn music must make application to Mr. Gropelli at the music room in Granite street from 7 to 8 p. m. Thursday or Friday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lander and two daughters, Doris and Frederica, and Mrs. Lawrence Rising left yesterday afternoon for Burlington, where they plan to make a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Lander attended a wedding of a friend last evening and for the remainder of the week they plan to visit relatives in that city and Hinesburg.

A. J. Farrow of Washington street, manager of the Montpelier and Barre branches of the Direct Importing Co., left early this morning for Smith Falls, Ontario, where he will pass a part of his two weeks' vacation. While on his vacation, he plans to visit relatives and friends in other parts of Canada. At the Barre store, Mrs. Mary Morrison of Washington street is taking his place as clerk while he is away.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Get your straw hat or Panama cleaned at the American Shoe Shining Parlors. Miss Leona Smith began work this morning as clerk in the Barre Candy Kitchen.

Churches clustered about the city park are to follow out a custom established several years ago by uniting in outdoor services on Sunday evenings during the months of July and August. A committee of clergymen has obtained permission from the city council for the privilege of using city hall park for the open air services and a schedule of preachers for each one of the meetings will be announced within a short time.

One of a class of ten young men and the only one from Vermont to be graduated from Bangor Theological seminary last week, was Amos Joseph Lord, a former Orange man, who is well known in this city. He will be remembered as having been associated with his father and others in the lumbering business at Lord's mill in Orange. After completing his elementary education in the schools of his native town, Mr. Lord enrolled at Montpelier seminary, from which institution he was graduated several years ago. Prior to his departure for theological school, Mr. Lord did itinerant preaching in this section of Vermont and made a large number of acquaintances who will rejoice to learn that his perseverance has been crowned with success. In the class with him at Bangor were students from the Dutch West Indies, England, Georgia and New Brunswick. Mr. Lord has not completed his plans for the future.
